

CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICY MANUAL

PURPOSE

The purpose of this Conflict of Interest Management Policy is to outline a suitable approach and response to the identification and management of Conflicts of Interest. PrestGroup is obliged to render unbiased and fair financial services to Clients. Accordingly, all employees of PrestGroup are obliged to comply with the General Code of Conduct and to avoid, and where this is not possible, mitigate any Conflicts of Interest between the provider and a client, or a representative of the provider and a client.

All employees should also take all reasonable steps to avoid any business activities and/or practices that may create Conflicts of Interest between PrestGroup and the employee's interests, and the interests of clients. In the event that it is not possible to avoid a Conflict of Interest, PrestGroup will take all reasonable steps to mitigate the impact as well as appropriately disclose any such Conflicts of Interest to clients.

In considering potential Conflicts of Interest, PrestGroup considers: the structure, ownership, and association of PrestGroup as well as its business activities, its clients and product suppliers.

Through the Conflict of Interest Management Policy, PrestGroup has introduced reasonable mechanisms to identify Conflicts of Interest, avoid, mitigate, terminate, disclose, establish processes and implement internal controls in relation to any potential or actual Conflict of Interest, wholly or partially.

The protection of our clients' interests is our primary concern and we undertake to the following:

- to identify the circumstances which may give rise to actual or potential conflicts of interest entailing a material risk of damage to our clients' interests;
- to establish appropriate structures and systems of control to manage those conflicts;
- to implement procedures to manage the conflicts that may arise in relation to financial interest received by PrestGroup and/or its representatives;
- to maintain systems in an effort to prevent harm or impairment to our clients' interests through identified conflicts of interest;
- to appropriately and effectively identify and manage all potential conflict of interest;
- to manage potential conflict through avoidance, establishing confidentiality barriers or by providing appropriate disclosure of the conflict to affected clients;
- to ensure compliance and to communicate the consequences of non-compliance

 - (c) a provider or a representative must, in writing, at the earliest reasonable opportunity -
 - (i) disclose to a client any conflict of interest in respect of that client, including -

- (aa) the measures taken, in accordance with the conflict of interest management policy of the provider referred to in section 3A (2), to avoid or mitigate the conflict;
- (bb) any ownership interest or financial interest, other than an immaterial financial interest, that the provider or representative may be or become eligible for;
- (cc) the nature of any relationship or arrangement with a third party that gives rise to a conflict of interest, in sufficient detail to a client to enable the client to understand the exact nature of the relationship or arrangement and the conflict of interest; and
- (ii) inform a client of the conflict of interest management policy referred to in section 3A (2) and how it may be accessed.
- (f) the provider involved must not deal in any financial product for own benefit, account or interest where the dealing is based upon advance knowledge of pending transactions for or with clients, or on any non-public information the disclosure of which would be expected to affect the prices of such product.
- (5) A provider may not describe itself or the financial services it renders as being "independent" if -
 - (a) the provider or its associate is a significant owner of any product supplier or its associate in respect of whose products the provider renders financial services;
 - (b) any product supplier in respect of whose products the provider renders financial services or an associate of such product supplier is a significant owner of the provider or its associate; or
 - (c) the provider directly or indirectly receives or is eligible for any financial interest from a product supplier in respect of whose products the provider renders financial services, other than a financial interest referred to in section 3A (1) (a) (i), (ii), (vi) or (vii);
 - (d) any other relationship exists between the provider and any product supplier in respect of whose products the provider renders financial services that gives rise to a material conflict of interest.

Section 3A. Financial Interest and Conflict of Interest Management Policy

- (1) (a) A provider or its representatives may only receive or offer the following financial interest from or to a third party -
 - (i) commission authorised under the Long term Insurance Act, 1998 (Act No. 52 of 1998) or the Short term Insurance Act, 1998 (Act No. 53 of 1998);
 - (ii) commission authorised under the Medical Schemes Act, 1998 (Act No. 131 of 1998);
 - (iii) fees authorised under the Long term Insurance Act, 1998 (Act No. 52 of 1998), the Short term Insurance Act, 1998 (Act No. 53 of 1998) or the Medical Schemes Act, 1998 (Act No. 131 of 1998);
 - (iv) fees for the rendering of a financial service in respect of which commission or fees referred to in subparagraph (i), (ii) or (iii) is not paid, if -
 - (aa) the amount, frequency, payment method and recipient of those fees and details of the services that are to be provided by the provider or its representatives in exchange for the fees are specifically agreed to by a client in writing; and
 - (bb) those fees may be stopped at the discretion of that client;
 - (v) fees or remuneration for the rendering of a service to a third party;
 - (vi) subject to any other law, an immaterial financial interest; and
 - (vii) a financial interest, not referred to under subparagraph (i) to (vi), for which a consideration, fair value or remuneration that is reasonably commensurate to the value of the financial interest, is paid by that provider or representative at the time of receipt thereof.
- (b) A provider may not offer any financial interest to a representative of that provider -
 - (i) that is determined with reference to the quantity of business secured for the provider without also giving due regard to the delivery of fair outcomes for clients; or
 - (ii) for giving preference to a specific product supplier, where a representative may recommend more than one product supplier to a client; or
 - (iii) for giving preference to a specific product of a product supplier, where a representative may recommend more than one product of that product supplier to a client.
- (bA) For purposes of subsection (1) (b) (i), a provider must be able to demonstrate that the determination of and entitlement to the financial interest takes into account measurable indicators relating to the -
 - (i) achievement of minimum service level standards in respect of clients;
 - (ii) delivery of fair outcomes for clients;
 - (iii) quality of the representative's compliance with this Act;as agreed between the provider and the representative, and that sufficient weight is attached to such indicators to materially mitigate the risk of the representative giving preference to the quantity of business secured for the provider over the fair treatment of clients.

- (c) For the purposes of this section, where the same legal entity is a product supplier and a provider, paragraph (a) does not apply to the representatives of that entity. That entity is subject to sections 3A (1) (b) and 3A (1) (bA), in respect of its representatives.
- (d) A provider or its representatives may only receive or offer the financial interests referred to in subsections (a) (iii), (iv) and (v) if -
 - (i) those financial interests are reasonably commensurate with the service being rendered, taking into account the nature of the service and the resources, skills and competencies reasonably required to perform it;
 - (ii) the payment of those financial interests does not result in the provider or representative being remunerated more than once for performing a similar service;
 - (iii) any actual or potential conflicts between the interests of clients and the interests of the person receiving the financial interests are effectively mitigated; and
 - (iv) the payment of those financial interests does not impede the delivery of fair outcomes to clients.
- (1A) (a) A Category I provider that is authorised or appointed to give advice may not receive a sign-on bonus from any person.
- (b) No person may offer or provide a sign-on bonus to any person, other than a new entrant, as an incentive to become a Category I provider that is authorised or appointed to give advice.
- (2) (a) Every provider, other than a representative, must adopt, maintain and implement a conflict of interest management policy that complies with the provisions of the Act.
- (b) A conflict of interest management policy must -
 - (i) provide for the management of conflicts of interest as defined in section 1, and -
 - (aa) mechanisms for the identification of conflicts of interest;
 - (bb) measures for the avoidance of conflicts of interest, and where avoidance is not possible, the reasons therefore and the measures for the mitigation of such conflicts of interest;
 - (cc) measures for the disclosure of conflicts of interest;
 - (dd) processes, procedures and internal controls to facilitate compliance with the policy; and
 - (ee) consequences of noncompliance with the policy by the provider's employees and representatives; and
 - (ii) specify the type of financial interest that the provider will offer a representative and the basis on which a representative will be entitled to such a financial interest and motivate how that financial interest complies with sections 3A (1) (b) and 3A (1) (bA);
 - (iii) include a list of all its associates;
 - (v) include the names of any third parties in which the provider hold an ownership interest;
 - (vi) include the names of any third parties that holds an ownership interest in the provider; and
 - (vii) include the nature and extent of the ownership interest referred to in subparagraph (v) and (vi); and
 - (viii) be drafted in an easily comprehensible form and manner.
- (c) A conflict of interest management policy must be adopted by the sole proprietor of a provider, the board of directors of a provider or, in the case where a provider is not a company, the governing body of the provider.
- (d) A provider must ensure that its employees, representatives and, where appropriate, associates are aware of the contents of its conflict of interest management policy and provide for appropriate training and educational material in this regard.
- (e) A provider must continuously monitor compliance with its conflict-of-interest management policy and annually conduct a review of the policy.
- (f) A provider must publish its conflict-of-interest management policy in appropriate media and ensure that it is easily accessible for public inspection at all reasonable times.
- (3) A provider or representative may not avoid, limit or circumvent or attempt to avoid, limit or circumvent compliance with this section through an associate or an arrangement involving an associate.
- (4) (a) A compliance officer or, where the provider need not, in terms of the Act, have a compliance officer, the provider, must include a report on the provider's conflict of interest management policy in compliance reports submitted to the Registrar under the Act.
- (b) The report referred to in paragraph (a) must report on at least the implementation, monitoring and compliance with, and the accessibility of the conflict of interest management policy.

4. IDENTIFYING CONFLICT OF INTEREST

In determining whether there is or may be a conflict of interest to which the policy applies, Prestgroup (Pty) Ltd considers whether there is a material risk of damage to the client, taking into account whether Prestgroup (Pty) Ltd or an employee thereof –

- is likely to make a financial gain, or avoid a financial loss, at the expense of the client;
- has an interest in the outcome of a service provided to the client or of a transaction carried out on behalf of the client, which is distinct from the client's interest in that outcome;
- has a financial or other incentive to favour the interest of another client or group of clients over the client's interests;
- receives or shall receive from a person other than the client, an inducement in relation to a service provided to the client in the form of monies, goods or services, other than the standard commission or fee for that service.

Internal Controls to Identify Conflict:

- The Key Individual of PrestGroup conducts annual reviews on all policies/contracts in order to ensure that the contract does not influence PrestGroup's objectives towards clients.
- The Key Individual will conduct ad hoc checks on business transactions to ensure the conflict of interest policy has been complied with.
- PrestGroup ensures that it maintains a Financial Interest Register. All Incentives and Immaterial Financial Interests received from or offered to a third party is recorded in the respective registers accordingly.
- All relevant personnel to sign a declaration to update PrestGroup and the Compliance Officer of any conflicts of interest (please see Annexure A)
- A list of all associated attached to PrestGroup is annexed to this policy (please see Annexure B).
- A list all third parties in which PrestGroup holds ownership interest is annexed to this policy (please see Annexure C).
- A list of all third parties that hold an ownership interest in this FSP is annexed to this policy (please see annexure D).
- The Key individual conducts annual reviews on all relationships with third parties to ensure that there is not influence on PrestGroup's ability to render unbiased and fair financial services to clients.
- The Compliance Officer will include monitoring of the Conflict of Interest Management Policy as part of the general monitoring duties and will report thereon in the compliance monitoring reports.
- All employees, including representatives and key individuals are required to read Board Notice 58 of 2010 and confirm same in writing.
- Our policy defines a possible conflict of interest as:
 - a conflict of interest between Prestgroup (Pty) Ltd and the client;
 - a conflict of interest between our clients if we are acting for different clients and the different interests conflict materially;
 - holding confidential information on clients which, if we disclosed or utilized, would affect the advice or services provided to clients.

5. MANAGEMENT OF THE CONFLICT

The measures Prestgroup (Pty) Ltd have adopted to manage identified conflict are summarised below. We consider them appropriate in our efforts to ensure that reasonable care is taken, in relation to each identified potential conflict of interest, and to act impartially to avoid a material risk of harming clients' interests.

- Procedures:

We have adopted appropriate procedures throughout our business to manage a potential conflict of interests. Our mandatory's and employees receive guidance and training in these procedures and they are subject to monitoring and review processes.

In managing conflicts of interest, our procedure is to:

- Identify the conflicts of interest;
- Assess and evaluate those conflicts; and
- Decide upon, and implement, an appropriate response to those conflicts.

The following is a list of possible management strategies to manage the potential or actual conflict of interest:

- Avoid the conflict of interest;
- Mitigate the impact;
- Where this is not possible, full disclosure of the Conflict of Interest;
- Implement a strategy to manage the conflict of interest where it cannot be avoided.

- Confidentiality barriers:

Our mandatory's and employees respect the confidentiality of client information and disclose or use it with circumspect. No such information may be disclosed to a third party without the written consent of a client.

- Monitoring:

The Key Individuals together with Legal & Compliance in charge of supervision and monitoring of this policy will regularly provide feedback on all related matters.

- Inducements:

Inducements from third parties in relation to services provided to clients are acceptable to Prestgroup (Pty) Ltd only if they are appropriately disclosed to clients and if it is either the payment of a normal fee or commission to continue the quality of our services to clients and would not impair our duty to act in the best interest of clients.

- Gifts:

Prestgroup (Pty) Ltd employees will not accept any gifts. Excessive gifts from clients may result in a conflict of interest, which we are committed to avoiding.

- Disclosure:

Where there is no other way of managing a conflict or where the measures in place do not sufficiently protect client's interests, the conflict will be disclosed to allow clients to make an informed decision on whether to continue using our service in the situation concerned. In all cases, where appropriate and where determinable, the monetary value of non-cash inducements will be disclosed to clients.

PrestGroup will conduct a due diligence to satisfy our self that no conflict of interest exist between the parties or where there is a conflict of interest, that such conflict of interest is properly managed, TCF principles are adhered to and that the product/ or service levels to the clients are what clients may expect and that a conflict of interest that exists does not compromise the level of service.

6. MATERIAL CONFLICTS

Where a conflict will have a serious potential impact on our clients or our business, it must be avoided. Only the Managing Director may make the final decision regarding a material conflict and whether the management process must be followed. Officers, directors, and employees must avoid representing PrestGroup in any transaction with others with whom there is any outside business affiliation or relationship. Officers, directors, Key Individuals, Representatives and employees must avoid using their business contacts to advance their private business or personal interests at the expense of PrestGroup, its clients, or affiliates. Officers, directors, Key Individuals, Representatives and employees must never permit their personal interests to conflict, or appear to conflict, with the interests of PrestGroup, its clients, or affiliates.

This may include but is not exclusive to:

- Real or perceived financial gain resulting from recommendations to our clients at a cost to the client;
- An outcome in service delivery or a transaction that may differ from the real interest of the client;
- Any non-cash incentives that may be received by the business from affecting any transaction and / or product;
- Effecting a transaction and / or product that may result in a benefit to another party other than the client.

7. GIFTS AND INDUCEMENTS

No bribes, kickbacks or other similar remuneration or consideration shall be given to any person or organisation in order to attract or influence any sort of business activity.

Any gifts or gratuities over the value of R1000-00 (annual calendar year total) to or from PrestGroup and/or its Representatives or to or from a third party, as defined in Financial Services Board Notice 58 of 2010, may not be accepted by any such person.

All gifts or benefits, even of a nominal or token value (such as pens, cups, notepads, chocolates etc.) may be accepted however it must be recorded in the Financial Interest Register. All gifts, incentives or financial interest offered to a third party must be recorded in the Financial Interest Register.

The Financial Interest Register shall be reviewed by PrestGroup regularly to ensure that incentives did not exceed the aggregate value of R1 000.00. The results of the review shall be communicated to the Head of PrestGroup. In determining whether any gift or incentive is to be allowed, the Managing Director shall have regard to this Policy.

8. SIGN -ON BONUSES

Management and/or key individuals may not conclude discussions with any person, the outcome of which is that sign-on bonuses are offered to such person as an incentive to become a Category 1 provider to render advice.

9. EXAMPLE OF ACTIVITIES THAT PRESTGROUP CONSIDERS AS A CONFLICT OF INTEREST

Personal interests may include working relationships and/or financial interests with immediate family members or relatives.

Activities include outside employment in areas similar to those in which PrestGroup is involved, such as:

- Outside work for clients, suppliers, vendors, or competitors of PrestGroup;
- Operating as a supplier to PrestGroup;
- Activities that have the potential to affect the staff member's objectivity;
- Activities that could reflect negatively on the reputation of PrestGroup and its employees;
- Holding a financial interest in a business concern that is a supplier, client, partner, subcontractor, or competitor of PrestGroup constitutes a conflict of interest under certain conditions;
- Incentive remuneration for placing a quantity of business with only 1 supplier, or for only 1 product of a supplier where a choice is available;
- Participating in any activity that might lead to or give the appearance of unapproved disclosures of PrestGroup's confidential information or client confidential information;
- Using an official position to obtain special privileges or advantages from individuals or businesses;
- An employee, officer or director may serve on external non-profit, governmental or for-profit governance boards, however if such service in any way could create an actual or perceived conflict of interest, the services must be disclosed, and approved by the governing body of PrestGroup.

No person may receive or solicit outside employment, including paid service on a governance board, or compensation that would impair the independence of judgment of the individual in performing duties as an employee of PrestGroup.

10. DISCLOSURES OF CONFLICTS

We as an FSP strives towards ensuring that we are able to appropriately and effectively identify and manage potential conflicts through avoidance, establishing confidentiality barriers or by providing appropriate disclosure of the conflict to affected clients.

We have therefore adopted the following disclosure measures:

- Disclose to the client any Conflict of Interest in respect of that client.

- The Disclosure must be made in writing and can be sent in an electronic format where necessary.
- The Disclosure must detail the following:
 - o The Conflict of Interest and the parties concerned;
 - o Any ownership or financial interest, other than an immaterial financial interest, which PrestGroup or representative may become eligible for;
 - o Nature of any relationship arrangement with a third party that gives rise to a conflict of interest in sufficient detail to enable the client to understand the exact nature of the relationship or agreement and the conflict of interest.
 - o Details of how the client can access the Conflict of Management policy.
 - o Include steps that will be taken to mitigate or avoid the conflict in line with this policy.

We require our staff members to fully disclose all actual and/or potential and/or perceived conflicts of interest especially with reference to the examples of conflicts as documented in this Policy.

11. RECORD KEEPING

Written records of how conflicts of interest are managed, together with all reports and representative declarations, must be kept for a period of 5 years and be available for inspection by the compliance officer on request.

12. COMPLIANCE MEASURES

We confirm that we will only receive financial interest in the form of –

- Commission from product suppliers in terms of the Short Term Insurance Act 53 of 1998;
- Fees in terms of the above Act, if these fees are reasonably commensurate to the service being rendered;
- Fees for rendering a financial service in respect of which no commission or fees are paid by the product supplier, only if the amount, frequency, payment method, recipient who will receive those fees are agreed by the client in writing which must include the details of the services provided by the provider or the representative in exchange for the fees and may be stopped at the client's discretion;
- Fees or remuneration for the rendering of a service to a third party;
- Subject to any other law, an immaterial financial interest;
- A Financial Interest (not including commission or additional fees for a financial service where no commission was paid) for which consideration, fair value and remuneration or remuneration that is reasonably commensurate/proportionate to the value of the financial interest paid by the provider/representative at the time of the receipt of the financial interest.

We confirm we will not offer any financial interest to our key individuals or representatives for –

- Favouring quantity of business over or without giving due regard to the delivery of fair outcomes to the client or
- Favouring a specific product supplier when we are required to recommend more than one supplier to a client; or
- Giving preference to a specific product over other products of a product supplier.

We confirm that we will consider the following when determining if Key Individuals and Representatives are entitled to financial interests

- If the Representative /Key Individual Achieved a minimum service level standard in respect of clients?
- If the Representative/key individual has delivered fair outcomes for the client.
- If the Representative/Key Individual is compliant with the Act.
- If there is sufficient weight attached to the indicators to mitigate the risk of representatives giving preference to the quantity of business secured over the fair treatment of clients.

We confirm that we only offer any financial interest to our key individuals or representatives if:

- The Financial interests are reasonably commensurate /proportionate to the services that are being rendered taking into account the nature of the service, skills and competencies reasonably required to perform it.
- The payment of the financial interest does not result in the provider or the representative being remunerated more than once for performing a similar service.
- Any actual or potential conflicts between the interest of clients and the interests of the recipient of the financial interest are mitigated.
- The payment of the financial interest does not impede the delivery of the fair outcomes to clients.

Compliance Officer Reporting

Our compliance officer must include a report on our adherence to our Conflict Of Interest Management Policy in compliance reports submitted to the Registrar under the Act. The report must report on at least the implementation, monitoring and compliance with, and the accessibility of the Conflict of Interest Management Policy.

13. CONSEQUENCE OF NON-COMPLIANCE

All personnel of PrestGroup are obliged to report every suspected or actual transgression of this Policy to one of the Directors and all employees should avoid any situation that may create or appear to create a situation which could be determined to be a Conflict of Interest. Avoidance, limitation or circumvention of this Policy via an associate will be deemed non-compliance

A violation of this Policy is a serious matter that could cause harm to PrestGroup and could result in disadvantaging certain of clients therefore non-compliance will be subject to disciplinary procedures in terms of FAIS and employment conditions and can ultimately result in debarment and/or dismissal as applicable.
